

General Provisions as to Governor.

Authentic-ation of documents issued by the Governor.

385. Any approval, sanction or licence or revocation of licence which under this Law may be given or made by the Governor may be under the hand of the Colonial Secretary, or of any person authorised in that behalf by the Governor.

Documents
made or issued by Governor to be evidence.

386. All documents made or issued for the purposes of this Law by the Governor or any person authorised in that behalf by him shall be received in evidence without further proof.

Power to Governor in Council to make Regulations.

387. (1) The Governor in Council shall have power to make regulations—

- (a) in respect of all matters stated or required in this Law to be prescribed ;
- (b) prescribing forms to be used for any matter under the provisions of this Law ;
- (c) altering or adding to the requirements of this Law as to the matters to be stated in a balance sheet, profit and loss account and group accounts and, in particular, of those of the Eighth Schedule ; and any reference in this Law to the said Eighth Schedule shall be considered as a reference to that Schedule with any alterations or additions made by regulations for the time being in force under this subsection.

Eighth Schedule.

Table A,
Eleventh Schedule,
Twelfth
Schedule.

Tables B, C and D of First
Schedule and forms in Second
Schedule
and Part II of Sixth Schedule.

(2) The Governor in Council may by regulations—

- (a) alter Table A, the Eleventh Schedule so that it does not increase the amount of fees payable to the registrar under that Schedule, and the form in the Twelfth Schedule ; and
- (b) alter or add to Tables B, C and D in the First Schedule and the forms in the Second Schedule and Part II of the Sixth Schedule, but no alteration made by the Governor in Council in Table A shall affect any company registered before the alteration, or repeal as respects that company any portion of that Table.

(3) No regulations shall be made under subsection (1) so as to render more onerous the requirements therein referred to, unless a draft of the regulations has been published in the Gazette.

Supplemental.

388. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of section 11 of the Interpretation Law (which provides that where a Law repeals and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provisions of a former Law, references in any other Law to the provisions so repealed shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to the provisions so re-enacted), references in any Law other than this Law to a company formed and registered under the Companies (Limited Liability) Laws, 1922 to 1944, or the Companies (Limited by Guarantee) Law, 1949, shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as references to a company formed and registered under those Laws or this Law.

Construction of references in other Laws to companies registered under the former Companies Laws.
Cap. 1.
18 of 1922 to 45 of 1944, 25 of 1949.

389. (1) Nothing in this Law shall affect any Order in Council, order, rule, regulation, appointment, conveyance, charge, mortgage, deed or agreement made, resolution passed, direction given, proceeding taken, instrument issued or thing done under any former enactment relating to companies, but any such Order in Council, order, rule, regulation, appointment, conveyance, charge, mortgage, deed, agreement, resolution, direction, proceeding, instrument or thing shall, if in force at the commencement of this Law, continue in force, and so far as it could have been made, passed, given, taken, issued or done under this Law shall have effect as if made, passed, given, taken, issued or done under this Law.

(2) Nothing in this Law shall affect any prosecution instituted under the provisions of any former enactment relating to companies.

(3) Nothing in this Law shall affect—

(a) the provisions of section 55 of the Trade Unions Law (which avoids the registration of a trade union under the enactments relating to companies);

(4) Any document referring to any former enactment relating to companies shall be construed as referring to the corresponding enactment of this Law.

(5) Any person appointed to any office under or by virtue of any former enactment relating to companies shall be deemed to have been appointed to that office under or by virtue of this Law.

(6) Any register kept under any former enactment relating to companies shall be deemed part of the register to be kept under the corresponding provisions of this Law.

(7) All funds and accounts constituted under this Law shall be deemed to be in continuation of the corresponding funds and accounts constituted under the former enactments relating to companies.

(8) Nothing in this Law shall affect—

(a) the incorporation of any company registered under any enactment hereby repealed ;

(b) the regulations contained in Table A made under the former enactments relating to companies, so far as the same apply to any company existing at the commencement of this Law.

(9) Where any offence, being an offence for the continuance of which a penalty was provided, has been committed under any former enactment relating to companies, proceedings may be taken under this Law in respect of the continuance of the offence after the commencement of this Law, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed under the corresponding provisions of this Law.

(10) Save to the extent to which it is otherwise provided by subsection (4) the mention of particular matters in this section shall be without prejudice to the general application of section 11 of the Interpretation Law with respect to the effect of repeals.

(11) In this section the expression " former enactment relating to companies " means the Companies (Limited Liability) Law, and the Companies (Limited by Guarantee) Law, 1949.
